

HOW'S THE MARKET? | April 2019

With the arrival of spring (at least a few days each week) and decreased interest rates, our market has become much more active. Inventory has increased giving buyers more homes to view and reducing the pressure of making quick decisions.

